“Learning how—and why—to help our kids regulate their emotions”

Locations and speakers are being confirmed. More information will be sent out as soon as it is available. These events are for parents, married or single, of teens, tweens, gradeschoolers, toddlers, infants, or future children. No childcare will be provided. This is intended to be an evening of worship, fellowship and learning for parents. To suggest a topic or volunteer to help host a Parenting University night at your parish, please contact chicago.family.synaxis@gmail.com. Side effects may include joy, prayerfulness, new friendships, and an increase in hope for your family's future. This is the end of the fine print.
