Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

By the time you read this, I will have served my first liturgy as priest of this wonderful parish and partaken of the Greek Festival. I also met some of you June 28-29 for the parish feast day including members of the parish council and Philoptochos. I wish to thank Metropolitan Nathanael for entrusting me the care of such an important and vital community in the Metropolis of Chicago. I am also deeply indebted to Fr. Panagiotis Boznos for his gracious help during this time of transition and especially for his faithful shepherding of the parish for the last five years. I look forward to working with him and all of you to continue the impressive ministries and outreach that were begun so many years ago by Fathers Latto and Scoulas of blessed memory. I also thank everyone for the most generous gift of the pectoral cross that I received after liturgy on June 29th.

I know many of you from my time serving in Chicago at Holy Apostles Greek Orthodox Church in Westchester (1995-1997) right after I graduated from seminary. But certainly, not everyone knows me or even much about me and Presvytera Jane. Please allow me to share briefly. My full name is Fr. Richard Demetrius Andrews. My parents gave me the somewhat unusual spelling for my patron saint. You can call me Fr. Rick or Fr. Demetri, I’m comfortable with both. I was born and raised in Minneapolis, Minnesota with a seven-year stint in Montana when I was an elementary school student. My family were active members at St Mary Greek Orthodox Church under the pastoral care of Fr. Anthony Coniaris.

I graduated from the University of Minnesota Carlson School of Management where I met Jane during our senior year. After two years of work, we married and moved to Boston to attend Holy Cross Seminary, graduating in 1994, the same year that our son Theodore (Teddy) was born. He now lives and works in Los Angeles, California. After our time at Holy Apostles, I was assigned to Kimissis tis Theotokou Greek Orthodox in Racine Wisconsin for two years. We just completed twenty years of service at St. George Greek Orthodox Church in Saint Paul, Minnesota, where we were very blessed to be back near family and friends.

During that time, we did extensive renovations to our entire facility including a near complete remodeling of the sanctuary. We installed a brand new Iconostasi with Byzantine-style carved wood and icons, new altar table, new prothesis tables, six new mural icons of the major feasts, numerous festal icons of the saints, new stone flooring for altar and solea, and several new pieces of sacred furniture (kouvouklion, chanter stand, and icon stands).

I also guided the parish through an extensive renovation in 1999-2000 that included installation of a new elevator, new main entrances with canopies, new bathrooms and new administrative offices. In 2001 we purchased two sizable lots next door to the church on historic Summit Avenue and developed it in 2007 expanding our parking lot with extensive landscaping.

In 2000 we started a Lenten lecture series. On Wednesdays after Presanctified Liturgy and a community meal, I gave lectures on various topics. On Fridays each year, I invited local Orthodox priests to talk on a separate theme. In 2005, we started an annual Lenten Retreat inviting a nationally recognized Orthodox Christian speaker, that included clergy, monastics, men and women lay theologians.

In 2009 we co-hosted the Archdiocese Youth Oratorical with our sister parish of St Mary Greek Orthodox Church in Minneapolis. They are also co-hosting the Metropolis Clergy-Laity Assembly this September.

This past March I received my Doctorate in Marriage and Family Therapy from Argosy University. Since before seminary, I had a keen interest in psychology and counseling. At seminary I took elective courses in Religion and Psychology, Psychopathology and Systems Theory and Family Therapy. After our son graduated from high school, I began the program. It took six years to complete but included multiple courses on systemic theory, assessments, ethics, academic writing and research. As well, the program required practicums/internships in counseling, supervision and teaching. My final dissertation topic was on clergy stress and burnout. From its beginning, the doctoral program helped me improve my pastoral skills in the parish and I’m grateful for the support I received throughout the experience.

Again, I look forward to getting to know all of you and working with you and helping you incarnate the Kingdom of Heaven on earth. May the Fast of the Panagia be spiritually fruitful as we approach the Feast of Her Dormition.

Blessed Fifteen Days of August!

+Fr. Rick
First Things First

Thank you to all parishioners that marched (or rode bikes!) in the Glenview 4th of July parade on behalf of the parish. The parade was a great opportunity to celebrate Independence Day, share our faith with the greater community, and, of course, invite all to visit the parish on 27-28 July! And Big Thanks are in order for the Big Event—Greek Fest 2019. Thanks to the leadership team, committees, and all volunteers for another great outdoor Fest. I hope all in the community were able to participate, support, or enjoy parish cooking!

The Heart of the Matter

As the month begins, our Parish welcomes Fr. Rick and Pres. Jane Andrews to the community. Find below a high-level introduction adapted from the St. George website.

Fr. Rick graduated from the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis with a BS in Business Administration and Marketing (1988). He graduated from Holy Cross Greek Orthodox Seminary (Boston, MA) with a Masters of Divinity (1994). He has recently completed a Doctorate in Marriage and Family Therapy at Argosy University (Twin Cities, MN).

He is married to Presbytera Jane (Donovan) and has a son, Theodore. Fr. Rick was ordained to the diaconate in 1994 and the priesthood in 1995 by Metropolitan Iakovos of Chicago. He has been serving as the pastor of St. George Greek Orthodox Church in St. Paul, Minnesota since May of 1999. He is also a volunteer chaplain with the St. Paul Police Department (since 2005), the chaplain of the Orthodox Christian Prison Ministry of MN, the presiding priest of the Greek Orthodox Spiritual Court of MN, an instructor and the administrator of the Minnesota Eastern Orthodox Christian Clergy Association (MEOCCA) Cooperative Catechism program, and on staff at the annual Orthodox Summer Youth and Family Camps in Minnesota.

Fr. Rick has previously volunteered as Treasurer and President of (MEOCCA), chaplain for the Orthodox Christian Fellowship (OCF) campus ministry at the University of Minnesota, lecturer and discussion leader for Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Chicago Young Adult Conferences, and as adjunct instructor at North Central University in Minneapolis, MN.

Fr. Rick previously served Holy Apostles Greek Orthodox Church in Westchester, Illinois (1994-1997) and Kimissis tis Theotokou Greek Orthodox Church in Racine, Wisconsin (1997-1999). During those years, he occasionally served at the Greek Orthodox Monastery of St. John Chrysostom in Kenosha, Wisconsin, participated at the Metropolis Fanari Camp, and was a member of the Racine Clergy Association and the Orthodox Clergy Syndesmos of Wisconsin.

Please offer your warm welcome to Fr. Rick and Pres. Jane as you have the opportunity in August.
Benchmarks of the Growth of our Programs and Ministries
Frank J. Andreou

Astonishingly, half of 2019 has already passed and when this article is published, the fall will be just around the corner. At the halfway mark, an assessment of the benchmarks of the growth of our programs and ministries is in order.

Benchmark #1 Membership of Christians in Church Overall: A recent Gallup article published in April of 2019, notes that only half of Americans consider themselves members of an organized church; down from 70% in 1999. Membership has dropped an astonishing 20% over the last 20 years. 62% of Generation Xers consider themselves to be a part of a church while only 42% of Millennials call themselves members of any church. The downward trend in participation in organized churches is a disturbing one indeed.

Benchmark #2 Membership at Saints Peter and Paul: At Saints Peter and Paul, we are truly blessed to have an energetic and dynamic leader in Fr. Panagiotis; an engaged and caring Parish Counsel and literally hundreds of engaged Parishioners who are extremely involved in Parish ministries like Outreach and Philoptochos. Since Fr. Panagiotis’ arrival, the focus has been on increasing participation in the Parish’s many ministries by a larger number of parishioners. The results are apparent; however, there is still work to be done. Particularly since it seems that a relatively static percentage of Parishioners are involved in more than one ministry. To keep growth of our membership stable and avoid the downward trend in membership overall, we must encourage increased participation in our ministries by more members of our Parish. I borrow some suggestions from Thomas S. Rainer, President and CEO of Lifetime Christian Resources.

First, raise the expectations of membership. Many church members do not really think it is that important to be an active part of the Church. No one has ever told them differently. Rather, the focus may have been on monetary stewardship alone and the hollow feeling of simply writing a check may lessen the attachment to the Faith and consequently, a decrease in involvement in ministries. Keeping the Faith alive is more than a matter of financial stability. A connection to the Church is imperative.

Second, we must all encourage ministry involvement. Many members become less frequent attendees because they have no ministry roles in the Church. We may place an undue burden on our Clergy to encourage participation when we ourselves must look out among our family and friends and encourage them to participate in a ministry that is suitable to their strengths or interests.

Third, monitor attendance of each member. No, I do not mean to imply that formal attendance at the door is a necessary solution but members are less likely to be absent if they know someone misses them. If we encourage friends and family to not only attend Liturgy but also join us at Coffee Connection for example (or maybe join us in the choir), participation in programs and ministries will certainly rise.

Benchmark #3 Stewardship Contributions: It should follow that an increase in participation in our programs and ministries will lead to an increase in Stewardship contributions by creating a direct connection to the Church and the feeling of making a difference in the lives of others. Our Parish has certainly seen an increase in the number of families joining our Church and it is incumbent upon all of us to encourage our new members to participate in ministries as well. As of May of 2019, $315,747.93 of our $650,000.00 goal has been contributed. We are working well towards our yearly goal and our new Stewardship Committee Chair, Steve Callas, has brought new energy to our Stewardship campaign. However, we all must watch the benchmarks above and be ever vigilant in participating in our many programs and ministries and encouraging others to do the same!

SSPP Counselors

"Something I learned at Fanari was how to pray and worship more on my own. Being away at college it can be hard to get to a church, and with the morning prayer that we did Thursday with our cabins instead of Orthros, both staff and campers learned that you can still pray wherever you are... Fanari has changed the way I think of my faith because it has helped me make connections that are forever. Fanari is a time to connect to those around you who may not be always with you at home life and continue those bonds with Christ at the center."

- Ellie Karfias

An Awesome Experience

This year at Fanari, our GOYAn’s received a full experience, full of fun, full of faith and full of Christ. Two of our GOYAn’s expressed their feelings like so.

"My favorite part of Fanari was making new friends, learning new things, and going to sessions. I learned that St. Dionysios is a walking saint. It has changed the way I think about my faith because Fanari taught me things about our faith I didn’t know and it made me want to become more involved in my faith."

- Olivia Lehocky

"Something I learned from Fanari was Christian love because it told me God is more than a word that you know, you need to learn about him and get to know him in prayer."

- Spiro Legatos

Whether counselor or camper, Fanari drew us closer to Christ and each other. We venerated St. Mardarije, worshipped together and received Christ all in one week. It was an awesome time and we are excited to go back!
Pastoral Message for July 2019

Over the past few years The Glenview Greek Fest has grown and developed from its reinstitution as an indoor fest to full blown outdoor festival with food tents, carnival attractions, and wonderful community involvement. This year looks to continue that development and growth.

Hosted by Saints Peter & Paul Philoptochos
SS. Peter and Paul Greek Orthodox Church Philoptochos Society

The end of the Philoptochos term also represents the end of our president, Georgia Ryerson’s, 4 year commitment to our chapter. We thank her for always managing all the moving parts that make our Philoptochos chapter. She is an unbelievable hard worker and an amazing leader!

Our yearly fundraisers (bake sales, holiday fair, spring event, etc) generated enough funds to contribute a total of $82,050.00 to the charities listed below. These charities were researched and vetted by our Philanthropy Chairpersons, Phyllis Pervolidis and Tiana Cocalas and then voted on by the Board. The most important criteria was meeting being part of our Mission Statement:
