Over the past few years the Glenview Greek Fest has grown and developed from its reinstitution as an indoor fest to a full blown outdoor festival with food tents, carnival attractions, and wonderful community involvement. This year looks to continue that development and growth. Before I proceed to my main points, I would like to thank the Festival Chairs Christy Gouletas and George Logothetis, along with all the organizers and volunteers. It would not be possible for us to gather together for such an impactful weekend without your tireless efforts, and we look forward to enjoying the fruits of their labors on July 27 & 28.

Hopefully by now it is well known in the parish that in addition to supporting the ministries of Saints Peter and Paul, one of the key goals of our festival is to offer greater community involvement. We achieve that by selecting two nonprofit organizations (one local to the Glenview community & one ministry of the Orthodox Church) to receive a donation from the festival proceeds, and inviting them to be a part of our festival. In this way the festival, which relies on community participation to be successful and profitable, is also giving back and supporting that same community. This year the two organizations that we will be supporting are: Orthodox Christian Fellowship (OCF) and Family Service Center (FSC).

OCF is the official collegiate campus ministry program under the Assembly of Canonical Orthodox Bishops of the United States of America. OCF transforms the lives of college students in the United States and Canada by guiding them along the path to Jesus Christ through His Church, cultivating a campus community of worship, witness, service, fellowship and education.

The vision of the Orthodox Christian Fellowship is:

- To be the loving presence of Christ and the Orthodox Church on college campuses;
- To be an integral part of students’ spiritual formation by challenging them to explore the Faith; and
- To inspire students to commit to living an Orthodox Christian way of life daily.

FSC is a mental health agency serving the communities of Wilmette, Glenview, Northbrook, and Kenilworth, as well as residents of New Trier and Northfield Townships. FSC provides clinical insight and counseling at affordable fees for children and adults, as well as crisis response services, educational programs, and ongoing support groups.

In order for our festival to have as large an impact as possible in supporting Saints Peter and Paul’s ministries, the continued spiritual development of our college students, and the counseling and mental heath assistance of FSC we invite all who are able to help by volunteering and patronizing the Glenview Greek Fest. I hope to see you all in the weeks and days leading up to the festival and especially on July 27 & 28.

+ Fr. Panagiotis
First Things First

Thank you to those from SS Peter and Paul who joined the Ascension Parish for their Feast Day Vespers and Divine Liturgy in Lincolnshire, where their new Church building was open for the first time. Cross-parish support is an important part of how we live the faith! Thank you to Chris Atsaves, the athletics coaches, and our student athletes for another outstanding year of sport and sportsmanship in our Christ-centered arenas. Thank you to Fr. Panagiotis and Philoptochos for recognizing our High School, College, and Graduate School graduates, along with Joanne Trahanas and the committees administering the Philoptochos Scholarship programs. Thank you to our dedicated ministry leaders (Bible studies, Cancer Support, Dynamis, GOYA, GOYAlums, Agape Preschool Camp), who provided activities in June and reminded participants and all of us that the Church is our vibrant, active home even in the relaxing summer months. Finally, many thanks to Julie Mantice and Angie Katsamakis for chairing the Parish Feastday celebrations on behalf of the Parish Council and Philoptochos. Our welcoming and inviting community spirit was heartfelt and well-received.

The Heart of the Matter

After the final Sunday Liturgy in May, Fr. Panagiotis announced a conclusion to our parish clergy search process and I offered a brief letter via the parish listserv reflecting His Eminence Metropolitan Nathanael’s assignment decision. As our listserv coverage is growing, but still incomplete, the content is reprinted here:

Dear Parishioners of Saints Peter and Paul, Christ is in our midst!

Later this summer, we will welcome Fr. Rick Andrews as our new Proistameno and head priest. Fr. Rick joins us after 20 years at St. George parish in St. Paul, Minnesota. He has recently completed his Ph.D. in Marriage and Family counseling and is in his 25th year of priesthood, having also served at Holy Apostles in Westchester and Kimissis in Racine. Fr. Panagiotis will continue his pastoral ministry at SS Peter and Paul as associate pastor. Although roles will shift, the council foresees the assignment providing complimentary and strong leadership for the parish, aligned with our history, supporting our strategic plan, and enabling our growth and stability into the future.

The timing and details of Fr. Rick’s assignment will be coordinated over the summer and will be communicated as available. Please join me in offering a heartfelt welcome to Father Rick and Presbytera Jane when they arrive.

I will close with a thank you to the community for your patience, prayer, and effort through this process, as we worked together to live the faith at Saints Peter and Paul.

In Christ, Keith Anderson, Parish Council President
Developing a Spiritual and Personal Connection to Stewardship
By: Jim Santos

Stewardship to SS Peter & Paul may in some ways be the most complex financial decision we make. What else do we “consume” where the cost is defined as “pay what you would like?” And, by the way, none of your peers will know what you are paying or will you know what they are paying. And, you can participate in as much or as little of what is available, and never be asked to pay more. And, the benefits derived may be the most impactful of your life.

If you’re a regular reader of this column, you have read some very insightful pieces from my colleagues on the stewardship committee, highlighting the numerous benefits associated with being a steward of SS Peter & Paul Greek Orthodox Church, along with reasons to be generous with your resources to our church.

I am going to attempt to touch on a different aspect of stewardship, the potential spiritual benefits that can be derived from sacrificial giving. Many years ago, the theme of the stewardship campaign was “The Widow’s Penny.” As we find in Mark 12:41, “As Jesus was sitting opposite the treasury, He watched the crowd putting money into it. And many rich people put in large amounts. Then one poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which amounted to a small fraction of a denarius. Jesus called His disciples to Him and said, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put more than all the others into the treasury…”

The obvious message in this passage is the widow’s offering was truly sacrificial, as she most likely denied herself life’s basic needs of food or shelter in order to make a gift to God. Certainly, none of us are being asked to give to the church at the expense of basic sustenance, but we can all think of our stewardship commitment as a sacrifice of some of life’s other pleasures or experiences. Much like our Lenten tradition of fasting, which is very personal and experienced differently by each individual, giving of our financial resources in an effort to further Christ’s work on earth can have a profound effect on our spiritual growth. We see Christ’s words “deny yourself” written numerous times in scripture. We have a wonderful opportunity to do precisely this when it comes to stewardship to our beloved church.

We live in a society overflowing with comforts and conveniences which makes the concept of self-denial all the more difficult to practice. However, we have all had situations that require some level sacrifice and have experienced the joy and reward that usually follows. Our financial commitment to the church can have an even more significant effect as it is answering in part, the very call to Christianity (“deny yourself and follow Me”). I pray that we will all find stewardship an opportunity to live our faith and draw closer to Christ.
Could you explain Matthew 24:3-35? Has anything of what Jesus professes already happened or is all of it to take place in the future?

What does the following mean: “Truly, I say to you, this generation will not pass away till all these things take place.” Who is this generation? Is it humanity on earth and all of its generations? Is this an example of why many of the first ever Christians thought the second coming of Jesus would have been in their lifetime? - JH

Matthew 24:3-35 is a section of the scriptures wherein Christ prophesizes to His disciples about the end of times and the coming of the Kingdom. He articulates to them all the things that are “signs” of the coming of the Son of Man at the end of times. We must be careful when we read these sections because Christ is speaking generally enough that through out the ages, each generation has sought to interpret their current events as their fulfillment and immediate predecessor to the return of Christ. Ultimately, I think that is His point. Mainly because in the very next verse Christ continues, “But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, but My Father only” (Matthew 24:36). This could be an example of the concept of “Now and Not Yet” which is often used to describe the Kingdom of God. It is here and present Now because we are united to Christ and dwell in His presence, but also the Kingdom of God has Not Yet reached its total fulfillment, which we look forward to. Thus, Christ tells His disciples the things to expect, and then cautions them against focusing solely on those events and missing the rest of the Gospel. In doing so, each generation witnesses the events of their time and lives in an expectation of Christ’s return, but does not lose focus on continuing to build a Christian world for the generations to come.

In response to the question about “this generation”, St. John Chrysostom gives the following: “He is speaking not of the generation then living but of the age of believers. For He is prone to distinguish a generation not by times only but also by mode of their religious service and practice...The generation of the faithful shall remain through all things that will surely come to pass. The faithful will not be cut off by any of the things that have been mentioned” (Homily 77.1 on the Gospel of Matthew, St. John Chrysostom). According to St. John Chrysostom, Christ is saying that despite all the hardship and trials that will befall mankind, there will always be a generation of faithful Christians. Therefore it is not a specific set of people living at a specific time ie the disciples that He was just then addressing, that will not pass away but rather the “Christian Family”, as the word γενέα often translated as generation, can also mean family or group of people with a common descent.

It is likely that misreadings of passages like this one, is what lead to the general expectation of Christ’s quick return among the earliest group of Christians. It is likewise misreadings of passages like these that convince each successive generation that they are living in the period immediately preceding Christ’s return. Yet, reading beyond the verses selected by our questioner, we see that Christ tempered that expectation, and in doing so asks us to be prepared, but not preoccupied.

Philoptochos News

SS. Peter and Paul Philoptochos’s Spring Benefit, A Celebration of Sisterhood, attended by over 200 guests at the North Shore Country Club in Glenview, IL on Saturday May 11th, doubled expectations for net proceeds. Co-chairs Stephanie Vlahakis and Gigi Poteracki thank guest speaker Jenni Pulos along with the entire dedicated and hard working benefit committee for all their talented contributions. A portion of the event proceeds will go to “Miss You Can Do it”, a national non-profit that empowers and supports young women born with disabilities. Remaining event proceeds will benefit the philanthropic activities of Philoptochos.

Thank you to Milly Pappas and Fran Mechaes who will be retiring from the Philoptochos Board. Milly has served since 1980 (5 years as president) and Fran since 1985 (4 years as president). Fran and Milly have been an integral part of the Board and have guided many subsequent Board members with their knowledge and passion for our ministry. Most importantly, they have always been eager to give of their time and skills in volunteering for our many Philoptochos events. We thank them for their service to SS. Peter and Paul Philoptochos!

Most Christians living in a secular society have unwittingly relegated God and all things spiritual to the "second storey" of the universe: a realm we cannot reach except through death. The effect of this is to banish God, along with the saints and angels, from our everyday lives. Fr. Stephen Freeman makes a compelling case for becoming aware of God's living and active presence in every moment of our lives here and now. Learning to practice your Christian faith in a one-storey universe will change your life--and make possible the living, intimate relationship with God you've always dreamed of.

GREEK FEST 2019 • JULY 27 & 28

Just Weeks Away – Here’s What You Need To Know...

Our Greek Fest Coordinating Committee has been hard at work to make this summer’s event even better than last year! With more kids’ games, a new menu item or two, entertainment and parking/shuttle bus conveniences, we hope the Fest is a pleasurable and family-friendly experience for all. For parishioners, volunteering is a great way to forge lasting friendships, make new friends. If you’re new to SS. Peter & Paul, it’s a chance to become connected with our church community. For families it strengthens bonds between parents and children, or grandparents and grandkids, when they volunteer side by side.

MANY HANDS NEEDED FOR SET-UP & FOOD PREP: On Thursday, 7/25, and Friday, 7/26, committee members will be on the church grounds and in the fellowship hall from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. getting things ready for our event. Volunteer for a specific shift (10-2, 2-6, 6-10) or join us when you can. Wear comfortable clothes and shoes; bring your own apron, peeler (for food prep) and scissors (for set-up or decorating). Kids 10+ can help too, with adult supervision. (See form on next page for ways to sign up.)

Thursday: Set up tables, chairs and booths; organizing materials for each booth, and cutting cheese, preparing vegetables and packaging dressings/sauces.

Friday: Cover tables & booth surfaces and hang tent signage; decorate Fest grounds and atrium area; skewer pork (pre-cut this year!) for souvlaki; make salads and finish other food prep.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR FEST DAYS: Many openings remain for helpers of various ages and capabilities. Those who need to sit can greet guests at the Welcome Tables. If you prefer to be indoors, you can work at Pastry Sales in the atrium, help prepare Loukoumades dough or assist with Food Prep in the fellowship hall. Tweens and teens can serve Frappes/Ice Cream in the atrium. Teens (14+) and young adults are needed as Food/Beverage Supply Runners. Of course, the greatest need is for Food Tent servers during peak hours from 5-9 p.m. (See form on next page for ways to sign up.)

CASH DONATIONS ARE STILL WELCOME. Donations of any size are appreciated to help offset major expenses such as tents and other rentals, promotion, décor, meat and beverages, entertainment, etc. A few opportunities remain for donors of $1,000 or more to have a tent named for them, their family or in memory of a departed loved one.

To donate online, go to https://ssppglenview.org/fest/ and select the box “Donate to Greek Fest”. You can also drop off checks at the Greek Fest table during coffee fellowship or contact George Logothetis (george.logothetis@aon.com) or Christy Gouletas (cgouletas@hotmail.com).

PARKING OPTIONS AVAILABLE TO VOLUNTEERS, GUESTS: The Festival will be using the church’s entire main lot. Valet parking will be offered 1-11 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, for a nominal fee, in our north lot across from Wagner Farm. Free parking will be available at Loyola Academy, on Laramie Ave. at Lake Ave., with shuttle bus service between Loyola and Greek Fest 1-11 p.m. each day.
