For emergencies, please call 847-282-0137
Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Here we are, entering my third month of service to you and the parish and I am still gaining a clearer understanding on everything that goes on in the community. Thanks again for your patience and I apologize if I’ve forgotten anything or anyone in my new role.

It’s a little difficult to write a column for the subsequent newsletter in the first week of the previous month. Hopefully, I can anticipate appropriately what is important for our near future.

First, as you may have noticed, Fr. Panagiotis and I have established a pastoral emergency on-call schedule. Generally, we alternate weeks except for our regular day off (Fr. Rick is Friday; Fr. Panagiotis is Monday). However, parishioners do not need to keep track of this information because we also created a new pastoral emergency phone number 847-282-0137. When you call it will forward to our cell phone and the priest who is on-call will answer. If he does not answer, please leave a detailed message and he will return your call asap. In relation to this, we also started a sermon schedule of alternating Sundays.

Second, in order to more effectively serve the parishioners, we divided up the ministries that each of us will lead and/or assist as necessary. I will be the liaison to the Parish Council, Agape Preschool, Acolytes (Altar Boys), Athletics, Cancer Support, Choir & Chanters, Divorce Rebuilders, Dynamis, Philoptochos, Welcome & Outreach (inc. Greeters), Stewardship, Capital Campaign, Catechism and Pan-Orthodox/Ecumenical. Fr. Panagiotis will oversee Bible Study, Bookstore, Care for Creation, Coffee Connection, Greek School, Philanthropy (formerly Outreach, inc. Habitat), Orthodox Couples Club, St. Stephen’s Mens’ Group, YAL (Young Adults). Our youth director, Peter Savas, is directly responsible for Youth Ministries (inc. Hope, Faith-Love-Joy, Jr & Sr GOYA, GOYAlumni) and Church School. Fr. Panagiotis and I will work with and be involved with the youth depending on our schedules. Our administrator, Sandra Glisic, will work with all ministry leaders to ensure optimal communications and scheduling. Now, these assignments are not necessarily permanent and do not preclude either clergy from participating in any ministry at any time.

Third, specifically regarding our youth, the Archdiocese is ready to implement the expansion of the Youth Safety and Protection policy. For several years, all staff (both paid and volunteer) of the Metropolis camping ministries have been required to submit and pass a criminal background check as well as complete online training about the safety and protection of youth. This will now include all youth workers (paid and volunteer) in each and every parish. All teachers, staff, coaches, advisors and volunteers in Youth programs, Church school, Greek school, Pre-school, and Athletics must complete these requirements by the end of this year. Sandra Glisic has been designated as our parish administrator for the implementation of this policy. Please look for communications from her and support her in this extremely important effort.

Fourth, in the very near future we will begin our stewardship and capital campaign drives for this Fall into 2020. I cannot go into detail yet because our theme, approach and strategy are not finalized at this moment. But I can say: 1) thank you to everyone for your generous support up to this point, 2) our staff, programs, ministries, temple and facilities are critically important for the vitality of our community, and 3) we will challenge each parishioner to give, generously and sacrificially, in order to sustain our parish mission and for our salvation.

Fifth, I am beginning to meet with couples who are seeking to be married in the Church as well as those who wish to have their child baptized. This helps us to get to know each other and helps me impart unto them the essentials of continuing our life in Christ. As I continue to settle into my role, I look forward to meeting more of you to get better acquainted and walk together on the road of salvation. Please do not hesitate to contact me if I can be of any assistance.

In Christ,
Fr. Rick
First Things First

The new school year started strong in September, with dedicated directors, staff, and volunteers launching into Agape Preschool, Greek School, and Church School for another great year. The Agape Preschool reintroduced a kindergarten class this year due to strong demand and parent advocacy. The Garden and Environmental Clubs are now combined as the Care for Creation Ministry, which led the Gardening Day with the Church School children to beautify our grounds. The Catechism Class this fall leverages the talents of our theologically trained clergy, presbyteras, and lay people to provide 12 weeks of instruction for seekers of the faith, whether new to Orthodoxy or born into the Church and desiring a fuller view on how to live the faith today.

The Heart of the Matter

My wife and I dropped off our two sons at colleges this August and became empty nesters for the first time this fall, marking a significant change in our family life. Autumn seems an appropriate time of year to consider change, but especially this year and especially for our Saints Peter and Paul Parish.

From a Parish Council view, managing change is a critical factor for parish success. The strategic plan has been active for four years, guiding key changes in staffing, ministry offerings, and focus at multiple levels. The next challenge to manage will be more difficult, for it will require each of us in the parish family to pray, and seriously reflect on a necessary change in our giving habits.

In the early years of the parish stewardship program (which began in the late 1970s), parishioner stewardship enabled a balanced budget, which in turn enabled festivals and fund raisers to be designated for special projects, whether maintaining or adding to our infrastructure. That was before cell phones, before Comcast triple plays, and before Starbucks was on every street corner. But these examples of worldly cares crept up on us. Our parish average stewardship was ~$1000/family in 1999, when the inflation rate caught up with the equivalent to 1979 $350 dues. In 2009, a decade ago, Fr. Angelo Artemas wrote in that December's Messenger that “stewardship is one big failed …experiment,” as our parish average remained at ~$1000 but inflation suggested the average should have been $1200. In 2018, the parish stewardship average remains at ~$1000 annually, far short of the nearly $1900 annually that nominal GDP per capita shows as equivalent to the 1979 dues. The practical impact is that maintenance items have been deferred, fundraisers are required to balance the operating budget, and the parish’s ability to lead is diminished within the community, the Metropolis, and the Archdiocese. This is not the change we are seeking in our community.

A simple change in giving habits could easily put us back on the course set by our parish founders. Rather than remain stagnant at $1000 per year, consider estimating 2% or more of your income (still far less than the biblical tithe of 10%). At the very least, consider offering a stewardship that is greater than your cellphone and cable or internet bills. With 600 families pledging at least $1900/year on average, our stewardship income would be at over one million dollars, enough to not only balance the budget, but also to meet facility needs annually, and be better stewards in our community. Change in habit, change in thinking, change in giving. Fall is the time for change.

Monthly Reflection:
We hope everyone has been having a great start to their school year! Last month, we had a great turnout at Sr. GOYA and all the kids were able to share and relate about their homework, classes, and new schedules. Now, we hope everyone is fully adjusted and is getting enough sleep. School is all about learning something new and coming together with your peers, and coincidentally that’s what our kids did at the Fall Youth Kick-off in September. Although it ended up being at church, we had lots of fun being able to play games, eat food and enjoy each other’s company in the name of Christ. We hope this communal bond holds true when we get to activities like our outreach event on October 9th. We love seeing our kids join together for these outreach events and help out our community. We also appreciate when our Sr. GOYA kids attend events like our Coffee Talk we had September 28th, because it is a GOYAn led event and conversation. We hope that our GOYA events continue to have the great turnouts they have been getting and that everyone always feels welcome. Happy Fall!

-Tess Tryfonopoulos, GOYA Vice President

COLLEGE CARE PACKAGES
Attention parents of college students!

Participants from Coffee Connection will be putting together care packages as an outreach to our parish college students.

Attention parents of college students! Please submit your student(s)’ current address, email and phone number via this link https://ssppglenview.org/college-care-package-signup or email the info to sspp.goyalumni@gmail.com. Even if you submitted this info last year, please be sure resubmit this year, so that we are certain the address has not changed and your student will receive their care package at the correct address.

* There is no designated fund for this ministry, and so we are asking for donations to treat our college students to some goodies, while keeping them connected to our community and letting them know they are loved and missed. Cash or gift card donations can be made by contacting sspp.coffee.connection@gmail.com or sending a check designated for college care packages to the church office.

Sign up for a care package here: https://ssppglenview.org/college-care-package-signup

- How were they chosen and why?
- Why don’t we pick our own hymns to sing?

Philoptochos News

We are off to a great start for our Philoptochos Calendar year! Welcome to the new Board members and good luck to our president, Julie Mantice. We hope to continue to fulfill the mission of the Society to be a "friend of the poor".

On August 27th our 2nd Annual Senior Luncheon was held in the Fellowship Hall. Thank you to our chairpersons, Ida Harris and Pat Nassos and their team of 14 volunteers who served over 100 people. Lunch was a delicious pastichio meal from Psistaria and entertainment by Father Nick Greanias, accompanied by Rosie DeSanto. Father Nick sang popular tunes from the 50’s to present and people sang along. Father Rick and Father Panayioti offered opening and closing prayers. It was a beautiful afternoon!
